

Maranatha Christian School

Maranatha Christian School is a cohort entry school. Due to a change in the Education Act we now have two intakes per term, i.e. start of term and mid-term which takes effect from Term 1, 2020. Children are not allowed to start school before their 5th birthday. For more information on cohort entry visit:

Maranatha Christian School is a state integrated school, with a defined “special character”. The school has an enrolment preference policy which defines preferential applicants as members of Hope Centre or Discovery Elim Christian Centre, or pupils whose parents are committed Christians and are active members of other Christian churches having a similar Pentecostal foundation.

Applicants will be interviewed and available spaces allocated in accordance with the preference policy outlined above.
